

Out of the Shadows: A Spotlight on Underrepresented Korean War Veteran Groups from the Library of Congress Veterans History Project

Eliel Hinojosa, Jr., Ph.D., Grant Coordinator
 Korean War Legacy Foundation

“Connecting teachers and students to the stories of underrepresented veteran groups from the Korean War, including African Americans, Asian Americans, women, Hispanics, and Native Americans.”

Strategies and Methods

- Veterans History Project Scorecard
- Teacher Fellowship | Orientation and Training
- Korean War Veteran Interview Review
- Curriculum Modules | Website | Webinar
- Professional Development

Target Audience(s) and Focus Topic(s)

- Teachers | Students | General Public
- Social Studies, Grades 8–12
- World History Digital Education | C3 Teachers
- 90+ Interviews (since March)
- 45% Rated Exceptional

Albert Harrington

Permalink: <https://koreanwarlegacy.org/interviews/albert-harrington/> Edit

Paragraph B I H L U T A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z

Albert Harrington served in the infantry of the Royal Regiment of Scotland during the Korean War. He was drafted and sent to Korea where he fought on the front lines. He recalls his arrival and details his typical duties as a soldier while there. He recounts the Second Battle of the Hook in November of 1952 and explains its significance. He speaks highly of South Korea's developments and shares his thoughts on the current conditions between North and South Korea. He concludes with a message to younger generations of his sympathy and well wishes for the Korean people.

Word count: 97

Last edited by Barry Hayes on July 30, 2019 at 4:24 pm

Q1. Teacher Fellow

Q2. Interview Source

Rating

Q3. Interviewer Name (Last, First) If None, write N/A.

Q4. Interviewer name matches name listed on VHP veteran page?

Q5. Audio Quality

Korean War Legacy Project

Albert Harrington

Albert Harrington served in the infantry of the Royal Regiment of Scotland during the Korean War. He was drafted and sent to Korea where he fought on the front lines. He recalls his arrival and details his typical duties as a soldier while there. He recounts the Second Battle of the Hook in November of 1952 and explains its significance. He speaks highly of South Korea's developments and shares his thoughts on the current conditions between North and South Korea. He concludes with a message to younger generations of his sympathy and well wishes for the Korean people.

BIO

Albert Harrington served in the infantry of the Royal Regiment of Scotland during the Korean War. He was drafted and sent to Korea where he fought on the front lines. He recalls his arrival and details his typical duties as a soldier while there. He recounts the Second Battle of the Hook in November of 1952 and explains its significance. He speaks highly of South Korea's developments and shares his thoughts on the current conditions between North and South Korea. He concludes with a message to younger generations of his sympathy and well wishes for the Korean people.

Last Name: Harrington

First Name: Albert

Date of Birth: 08/07/1930

State of Birth: International

Home State: International

Enlisted/Drafted: drafted

Enlisted/Draft Year: 1951

Dates of Service - Start Year: 1952

Dates of Service - End Year: 1953

Branch of Service: Army

Military Status: Veteran